

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

(b) (1)
(b) (3)

Montrell E. Mills
(Description of Performance)

Mr. Montrell E. Mills entered on duty with the Agency in March 1951 after having served as an Air Force pilot during World War II, and having graduated from Michigan State University with a degree in police administration. During his career in the Agency, Mr. Mills served in a wide variety of assignments including; investigator, both in the [redacted] and, for an extended period, as a [redacted] in Texas; [redacted] an office of Security [redacted] support officer; and industrial security officer.

From 1951 through 1965, Mr. Mills served in positions involving increasing responsibilities of an investigative nature.

[redacted]

[redacted]

[redacted]

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

[redacted]
[redacted]
during the period 1968 through 1973, Mr. Mills received seven commendations.

Mr. Mills was assigned to the [redacted]
[redacted] security officer in 1974. He has become very knowledgeable regarding [redacted] security matters. During this period he has been shown to be extremely diligent and discerning [redacted] He has repeatedly made recommendations which have enhanced the Agency's [redacted] security program. [redacted]
[redacted]

[redacted] These accomplishments are clearly indicative of his enthusiasm and dedication to his work.

As evidenced by the type of activities Mr. Mills has been involved in during his career, and based on the manner of his performance, it was obviously necessary for Mr. Mills to have a high degree of initiative, ingenuity and flexibility. Throughout his career, Mr. Mills has displayed little regard for the personal inconvenience involved in carrying out his assignments. He has performed throughout his career with a high degree of professionalism, patriotism, and dedication. For this performance and for his devotion to the Agency, he is recommended for a Certificate of Distinction.